MIAMI GARDENS, Fla. — The Miami Dolphins announced their team award winners for the 2024 regular season. Defensive tackle Zach Sieler was voted the Dan Marino Most Valuable Player, defensive tackle Calais Campbell earned the Don Shula Leadership Award, linebacker Jaelan Phillips was named the team's Ed Block Courage Award winner and tackle Terron Armstead was honored with the Nat Moore Community Service Award.

Sieler is the Dan Marino Most Valuable Player, an award voted on by South Florida media who regularly cover the team. The award was renamed the Dan Marino Most Valuable Player Award in 2000 to reflect the achievements of the Hall of Fame quarterback and 12-time team MVP.

A 2024 team captain, Sieler has led a defensive unit that ranks third across the NFL, while carrying the momentum from his career-best 2023 campaign to the 2024 season, consistently disrupting offensive backfields over the course of the year and delivering game-changing plays in pivotal moments on a weekly basis. The defensive tackle leads Miami in sacks (8.5), tackles for loss (12) and quarterback hits (17), while his 49 tackles (24 solo) are tied for the most among Dolphins defensive linemen. Sieler has also recorded an interception, a forced fumble, a fumble recovery and two passes defensed. Through 16 games this season, Sieler's 8.5 sacks are the third-most among interior defensive linemen in the NFL, and he is the only interior defensive lineman in the NFL to record 8.5-plus sacks in each of the last two seasons. Sieler was named the AFC Defensive Player of the Week for the first time in his career after recording two sacks, three quarterback hits and two tackles for loss against the N.Y. Jets in Miami's 32-26 overtime victory in Week 14.

Sieler is the second defensive tackle to earn the honor (Ndamukong Suh, 2017) and just the fourth defensive lineman overall (Suh, Jason Taylor & Adewale Ogunleye). Sieler becomes the first defensive player since Xavien Howard in 2020 to be named the team's Most Valuable Player and is the second seventh-round selection to win the award (Ryan Fitzpatrick, 2019). Sieler joined the Dolphins after being awarded off waivers on Dec. 5, 2019. He was selected 238th overall in the 2018 NFL Draft by Baltimore after an All-American career at Ferris State University where he joined the team as a walk-on.

Campbell is the 2024 recipient of the Don Shula Leadership Award, which is voted on by the players and given to the teammate who best exhibits leadership on and off the field. The award was renamed the Don Shula Leadership Award in 2005 to reflect the accomplishments and impact of the Hall of Fame coach.

Campbell is the first defensive tackle to earn the award and the first defensive lineman since Cameron Wake in 2017. At 38 years of age, he is the oldest player to receive the award and the eighth to earn the honor in their first season with the team. Campbell was named a team captain for the fifth time in his career after signing with Miami only a month before the start of training camp. He is the recipient of the 2019 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award and earned the Art Rooney Sportsmanship Award in 2022.

In his 17th season in the NFL, Campbell has started all 16 games for Miami, recording 49 tackles (33 solo), 4.0 sacks, 11 tackles for loss, 11 quarterback hits, five passes defensed and a forced fumble. On the first defensive play of the 2024 season, Campbell brought down Jacksonville quarterback Trevor Lawrence for his first sack of the season. In doing so, Campbell recorded at least one sack for the 16th consecutive season, the third-longest streak in NFL history. Against Indianapolis on Oct. 20, 2024, Campbell became the fourth defensive lineman in NFL history to appear in 250 games.

Phillips is the team's Ed Block Courage Award recipient, which is selected by the Dolphins' athletic training staff and symbolizes professionalism, courage and inspiration, while also serving as a role model in the South Florida community. Phillips, a first-time recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, previously earned the 2021 Nat Moore Community Service Award and was Miami's Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee in 2022.

Phillips suffered a season-ending Achilles injury in Week 12 of the 2023 season against the N.Y. Jets and immediately set his sights on his journey to return to the field. He rehabbed diligently throughout the offseason, returning to action in the Dolphins' Week 1 matchup against Jacksonville, in which he made an immediate impact with a key late fourth-quarter sack to force a Jaguars punt and set up Miami's game-winning field goal as time expired.

Phillips played in four games for the Dolphins in 2024 before suffering another season-ending injury in Week 4. Despite the adverse situations Phillips has faced in back-to-back seasons, the Dolphins linebacker continues to bring his outstanding and determined efforts to the rehabilitation and recovery process as well as his widespread community service initiatives throughout South Florida and support of the Dolphins Cancer Challenge as a member of the executive board.

Armstead is the winner of the Nat Moore Community Service Award, given annually to a Miami Dolphins player recognized for his exemplary commitment to serving the South Florida community. This award was named after former Dolphins player and Ring of Honor member Nat Moore in 1987, who spent 13 seasons in a Dolphins uniform and made an equally profound impact off the field, which he continues to this day as a senior vice president for the team.

Since joining the Dolphins in 2022, Armstead has been a leader for the organization on and off the field. Armstead has embedded himself in the community, dedicating his time, energy and resources to the youth around South Florida. Armstead has hosted and been involved with numerous community events throughout the 2024 season by way of his Team Armstead Foundation. In August, Armstead hosted a back-to-school giveaway for 120 local youth, providing meals and new backpacks to ensure each student had the necessary materials for the start of the school year. Leading up to Thanksgiving, Armstead provided a shopping spree for 50 local youth from the Boys & Girls Clubs of Broward County. In December, he launched the Team Armstead Foundation's "I Am A Business Program" in collaboration with 5000 Role Models of Excellence Project. Armstead created a curriculum and mentored students in financial literacy, soft skills and entrepreneurial skills while providing tablets and financial resources to aid business idea development. He then collaborated with teammates to provide 100 kids from Big Brothers and Big Sisters, S.E.E.K Foundation the opportunity for a shopping spree for the holidays. Armstead later participated in the Miami Dolphins annual Holiday Toy Event presented by the Morgan Law Group, spending time with and provided gifts to more than 160 local families in need of support during the holidays.

The signature event, scheduled to take place on Saturday, February 22, 2025, will feature a 15-year celebration as the organization commemorates its participants and its commitment to supporting innovative cancer research at Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center, a part of UHealth – the University of Miami Health System.

This past February, DCC XIV united a record-breaking 6,702 participants and raised over $12 million – surpassing the previous year's record of $10.5 million raised – to fulfill the organization's $75 million commitment to Sylvester. That commitment, which was made in 2020 and is the largest known philanthropic pledge in sports, was reached two years ahead of schedule.

This year, the DCC will bring back its ride distances named in honor of Miami Dolphins players in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. They include the 13-mile Dan Marino ride presented by Aetna, the 39-mile Larry Csonka ride presented by Robins and Morton, the 54-mile Zach Thomas ride and the 99-mile Jason Taylor ride. Additionally, the event will be returning to the Miami International Autodrome (MIA) facilities, where it debuted in 2024 to elevate the participant and fan experience.

Founded in 2010 as the signature health initiative of the Miami Dolphins, the Dolphins Cancer Challenge (DCC) has become the largest fundraiser in the NFL with over $75 million raised in support of lifesaving research at Sylvester Comprehensive Cancer Center. The DCC is the Dolphins' year-round initiative in support of those impacted by cancer. Visit www.RideDCC.com to register or learn more.

MIAMI DOLPHINS HOST SECOND ANNUAL FOOTBALL UNITES™ JASON JENKINS DAY OF SERVICE

Nearly 650 volunteers served in honor of the late Dolphins executive's legacy of giving back to the community

The Miami Dolphins, joined by local officials, community partners, corporate sponsors, community restaurant partners, local media and members of the South Florida community, hosted the second annual Football UNITES™ Jason Jenkins Day of Service on Wednesday, Oct. 30, to celebrate the life and legacy of the organization's late Senior Vice President of Communications and Community Affairs, on what would have been his 50th birthday.

Nearly 650 volunteers, including Miami Dolphins, Hard Rock Stadium, Miami Open and Formula 1 Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix staff, spent the day serving a cumulative 1,600 hours across over 20 community projects in South Florida. In total, more than 22,000 members of the local community will be impacted through these projects throughout the Tri-County area.

"I'm filled with gratitude to see how, not only this organization, but the South Florida community continues to keep Jason's legacy alive," said Dolphins Cancer Challenge Executive Board Chair and wife of Jason Jenkins, Elizabeth Jenkins. "On what would have been his 50th birthday, Jason would have been proud to see our children, Liya, Aiden and Sloane, alongside this organization serving the community that he dedicated so much of his life to serving. Thank you to the local officials, media members, Football UNITES™ community partners, corporate partners and everyone who joined us to celebrate and remember him today. We miss him deeply but understand that serving one another is the best way that we can continue his legacy and make a positive impact in South Florida and beyond."

Jason Jenkins joined the Dolphins in 2009 and dedicated himself to serving the South Florida community for 14 years. In 2015, Jenkins was promoted to Senior Vice President of Communications and Community Affairs and oversaw the organization's front-facing brands, including marketing, public relations, social media and community efforts for the Miami Dolphins, Hard Rock Stadium, Miami Open and Formula 1 Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix. During his tenure, he led the charge for various community initiatives including the Junior Dolphins youth football program, the Miami Dolphins Foundation Food Relief Program, the Miami Dolphins Football UNITES™ program and was an influential part of the Dolphins Cancer Challenge. Jenkins created community programming that served as a model for the NFL, most notably his social justice initiatives and Football UNITES™, whose mission is to use football as a vehicle to unite groups of different races, genders, sexual orientations, identities, abilities and faiths. Jenkins passed unexpectedly in August 2022, leaving behind an incomparable legacy of impact in South Florida. Announced on the one-year anniversary of his passing in August 2023, the Miami Dolphins will continue to host the Football UNITES™ Jason Jenkins Day of Service annually on his birthday as a way to celebrate his life and carry on his legacy.

Volunteers at community service projects:

- Served meals to over 225 people.
- Assembled more than 1,100 hygiene kits and care packages.
- Planted over 100 plants at a local park.
- Planted 325 fruits and vegetables.
- Inspected, sorted, and packaged 23,800 pounds of food.
- Impacted more than 900 children and young adults.
- Supported facility improvements and holiday preparations at local community centers.

FB ALEC INGOLD NAMED MIAMI DOLPHINS NOMINEE FOR WALTER PAYTON NFL MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD PRESENTED BY NATIONWIDE

Winner Announced at NFL Honors on Thursday, Feb. 6, 2025

The Miami Dolphins announced that fullback Alec Ingold has been selected as the team's nominee for the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award presented by Nationwide. The Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award is the league's most prestigious honor, recognizing players who excel on- the-field and demonstrate a steadfast commitment to creating a positive impact beyond the game.

In his third season with the Dolphins, Ingold has continued and even grown his investment in inspiring, empowering and serving the South Florida community. Through his own adoption journey, Ingold has found purpose and intention, focusing much of his work in the advocacy and financial support of children in the child welfare system. After founding the Ingold Family Foundation in 2022, he has established and sustained programming to help youth achieve their dreams, providing education, inspiration, support and access to opportunity.

Ingold authored and published his first book, "The 7 Crucibles" in 2023 and has since developed a curriculum and training modules based on the book's lessons in personal adversity. In 2024, Ingold implemented this curriculum in Broward County Public Schools, the second-largest school district in Florida. More than 20 of the athletic programs from those schools have been onboarded, impacting up to 17,000 student-athletes. Through his foundation, Ingold hosts annual programming from football camps to his designed Money Mini Camps dedicated to the advancement of financial literacy and professional development for underprivileged high schools.

He has also continued his work with SOS Children's Villages Florida, a residential foster care community in South Florida. This year, Ingold initiated a season-long "Gifts In Gold" fundraising campaign to provide a brand-new playground for the neighborhood, which will come to completion before the holidays. Ingold also donated 45 brand-new pairs of shoes to ensure the kids started off the school year in style. He makes regular visits to the community and supports them through his foundation.

This marks Ingold's third selection as his team's Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee (2020 Raiders, 2023-24 Dolphins). Also a three-time team captain, Ingold was selected to his first Pro Bowl in 2023 as the lead blocker in a unit that led the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time in 30 years.

"Alec continues to be an incredible example of what we want Dolphins players to exemplify on the field, in the locker room and in the community, and we couldn't be prouder to recognize him as our Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee once again," said General Manager Chris Grier. "His commitment and dedication to all he does sets him apart, and his passion for making an impact on kids, especially those who can find inspiration in his own story, is truly remarkable. When Alec's football journey comes to an end, his impact will continue to carry on – and that is the greatest legacy a player can leave on the game and on the community."

Each nominee will receive up to $55,000 and the award winner will receive up to a $265,000 donation to their charity of choice. All donations are made possible by the NFL Foundation and Nationwide Foundation.

All 32 nominees will be recognized for their achievements during the week leading up to Super Bowl LIX in New Orleans. The winner of the 2024 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award will be announced during NFL Honors, a primetime awards special to air nationally on FOX and the NFL Network on Thursday, Feb. 6.

Fans are once again encouraged to participate in Nationwide's annual Charity Challenge, a social media and online contest that allows fans to show support for their favorite Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee. Fans can vote on X/Twitter by posting #WPMOYChallenge along with the last name/X handle of their chosen nominee or by voting directly on NFL.com/ManOfTheYear. The nominee who receives the most collective hashtag mentions and online votes will win an additional $35,000 donation from Nationwide to the charity of their choice, with the runner-up receiving $10,000 and the third-place winner receiving $5,000. Charity Challenge voting takes place from Thursday, Dec. 5 to Sunday, Jan. 6.

Beginning Week 14 and continuing through the end of the season, each of this year's nominees, including Ingold, will wear a special Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year helmet decal in recognition of their accomplishments on and off the field.

SCORING SUMMARY

Miami	0	7	7	6	20

Kicker Jason Sanders nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired to secure the Miami Dolphins a 20-17 win over the Jacksonville Jaguars in in this year's season opener at Hard Rock Stadium.

The come-from-behind victory was ignited by a third quarter forced fumble by Jevón Holland, as he stripped Jaguars running back Travis Etienne Jr. just shy of the goal line. The ball was recovered by cornerback Kader Kohou in the end zone and Miami proceeded to score the game's last 13 points to earn the victory.

The turnover set the Dolphins up on their own 20-yard line with 2:19 remaining in the third quarter. On the first play of the drive, quarterback Tua Tagovailoa connected across the middle of the field with wide receiver Tyreek Hill, who outran a pair of Jaguars defenders on his way for the 80-yard score – the longest reception of Hill's career.

Miami tied the game with 4:26 left in the fourth quarter with a 37-yard field goal by Sanders after a 12-play, 73-yard drive. The defense forced another Jaguars' three-and-out, which set up Miami's offense at its own 35-yard line. The Dolphins then traveled 31 yards downfield on seven plays to set up the Sanders game-winning field goal.

Buffalo	7	17	7	0	31
Miami	7	3	0	0	10

The Miami Dolphins dropped their first divisional matchup of the season, losing 31-10 to the Buffalo Bills on Thursday Night Football.

In the first possession of the game, Bills cornerback Ja'Marcus Ingram picked off quarterback Tua Tagovailoa on a pass intended for wide receiver Grant DuBose and returned the turnover to Miami's 37-yard line. The Bills engineered a six-play, 37-yard drive that ended on a 17-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Josh Allen to running back James Cook that gave the Bills an early 7-0 lead with 9:49 left in the first quarter.

Miami responded with a touchdown of its own to tie the game at seven apiece. A third-down pass from quarterback Tua Tagovailoa to wide receiver Jaylen Waddle set Miami up with the ball inside Buffalo's 10-yard line, and a second-and-goal, six-yard swing pass to running back De'Von Achane capped off the drive with 3:21 to go in the first.

The Bills' defense continued to respond. On a first-down pass intended for wide receiver Robbie Chosen, cornerback Christian Benford picked off Tagovailoa and returned the interception to the Dolphins' 44-yard line. Buffalo again capitalized off the error, scoring on a 43-yard field goal by kicker Tyler Bass to give the Bills a 10-7 lead.

Buffalo continued to extend its lead, adding two touchdowns in the second quarter. To close out the half and halt Buffalo's 17-point run, kicker Jason Sanders sent a 34-yard kick through the uprights to make it a two-score game, 24-10, at the break.The game-cementing play came with 9:27 left in the third quarter, as Ingram picked off Tagovailoa for a second time near the right sideline and returned the takeaway 31 yards to give the Bills a 31-10 advantage for the remainder of the game.

Tagovailoa completed 17-of-25 passes for 145 yards, a touchdown and three interceptions and ran the ball twice for 17 yards before leaving the game in the third quarter after he was ruled out with a concussion. Quarterback Skylar Thompson entered the game in place of Tagovailoa and completed 8-of-14 passes for 80 yards. Achane's performance was a silver lining for the Dolphins. He ran the ball a career-high 22 times for 96 yards and caught a game-high seven passes for 69 yards and a score. Tight end Jonnu Smith was another bright spot for Miami. He totaled six receptions for 53 yards in what was just his second game with the Dolphins. Running back Jaylen Wright, the 2024 fourth-round pick, also made his NFL debut, running the ball five times for four yards.

Despite the loss, Miami out-gained Buffalo 351-247 in total yards.

MIAMI 3	SEATTLE 24

	1	2	3	4	F
Miami	3	0	0	0	3
Seattle	17	0	0	7	24

The Miami Dolphins forced two turnovers and recorded three sacks, but the strong defensive effort was not enough to overcome the Seattle Seahawks in a 24-3 loss on Sunday afternoon at Lumen Field.

Quarterback Skylar Thompson, in his first regular season start since Week 18 of the 2022 season, completed 13-of-19 passes for 107 yards. He left the game in the third quarter and was later ruled out with a chest injury. Quarterback Tim Boyle, making his first appearance with the Dolphins, replaced Thompson and finished 7-of-13 for 79 yards.

Seattle scored on the first drive of the game after quarterback Geno Smith connected with wide receiver Tyler Lockett for a gain of 18 yards to set the Seahawks up in Dolphins territory. Kicker Jason Myers then nailed a 56-yard field goal to give Seattle a 3-0 lead with 10:49 left in the first quarter. After a missed 57-yard field goal by Dolphins kicker Jason Sanders, the Seahawks utilized a blend of their rushing and passing attacks to quickly drive down the field. A four-yard touchdown run by running back Zach Charbonnet put the Dolphins in an early 10-point deficit.

Following a 51-yard punt by Jake Bailey, Miami's defense came up with a key turnover. On third-and-15 from Seattle's five-yard line, Smith – while being pressured by Miami's pass rush – was picked off by cornerback Kader Kohou on a pass that was intended for and tipped into the air by Charbonnet. Starting the following offensive drive on Seattle's six-yard line, the Dolphins were unable to fully capitalize on the field position, settling for a 23-yard field goal. Seattle extended its lead to 17-3 on the last play of the first quarter, as Smith connected with Metcalf downfield for a 71-yard touchdown – the only play of the explosive scoring drive.

The Dolphins recorded their second takeaway of the game with 0:46 left in the third quarter after defensive tackle Zach Sieler intercepted a pass that was tipped by defensive tackle Calais Campbell. Taking over at their own 48-yard line, Boyle led the Dolphins on an 11-play, 50-yard drive to Seattle's two-yard line but came away without points after an incomplete fourth-down pass that was intended for running back De'Von Achane. Both teams were scoreless until the 4:55 mark of the fourth quarter, when Charbonnet crossed the pylon for a second time on a 10-yard run, sealing Seattle's victory.

Achane was the leader of the Dolphins' ground game with 30 yards on 11 carries. Rookie running back Jaylen Wright had his most productive day as a pro, rushing for 17 yards on his two attempts.Wide receiver Tyreek Hill led Miami's pass-catchers with 40 yards on three catches. Wideout Jaylen Waddle posted a team-high four receptions for 26 yards, and receiver Dee Eskridge caught one pass for 30 yards – Miami's longest play from scrimmage – in his Dolphins debut. Eskridge played three seasons for the Seahawks from 2021–23. Safety Jordan Poyer and former Seattle linebacker Jordyn Brooks paved the way for Miami's defense with a team-high nine tackles, while cornerback Jalen Ramsey led all players with a game-high two tackles for loss. Defensive tackle Da'Shawn Hand recorded his first sack as a Dolphin on the first drive of the game, while Sieler and Campbell each added a sack of their own in the second and third quarter, respectively.

What started out as a closely contested game got away from the Miami Dolphins in the second half, as they fell 31-12 to the Tennessee Titans on Monday night at Hard Rock Stadium. Starting in his first game with the Dolphins after being signed off the Baltimore Ravens' practice squad on Sept. 17, quarterback Tyler Huntley completed 14-of-22 passes for 96 yards and ran for a team-high 40 yards and a touchdown on eight carries.

Linebacker Emmanuel Ogbah spearheaded a strong defensive start for Miami with a turnover. Ogbah picked off quarterback Will Levis on a pass intended for wide receiver DeAndre Hopkins. This was Ogbah's second career interception – his first being in Week 3 of the 2023 season

Levis suffered a shoulder injury reaching for the marker on third-and-4 and was questionable to return. Quarterback Mason Rudolph entered the game on the next series and played the remainder of the game for Tennessee. Tennessee scored first, as Rudolph guided the Titans 21 yards downfield to set up a 53-yard field goal by Nick Folk. Folk connected again on a 52-yard field goal giving the Titans a 6-0 lead.

A 12-yard scramble by Huntley put the Dolphins in field goal range and a pair of passes to running back De'Von Achane and Waddle led to a 44-yard field goal by kicker Jason Sanders. Rudolph connected on a 29-yard pass to wide receiver Tyler Boyd, setting up a 47-yard field goal by Folk to give Tennessee a 9-3 lead heading into halftime.

The second half started positively for the Dolphins. A batted down pass by linebacker Jaelan Phillips on third down led to an electric 27-yard punt return by wide receiver Braxton Berrios that started off Miami's offense on the Tennessee 48-yard line. A 56-yard field goal by Sanders, one yard shy of his career long, brought the Dolphins within three with 9:02 left in the third quarter. Miami's momentum was short-lived, as the Titans responded with a five play, 70-yard touchdown drive that was capped off by a seven-yard run by running back Tyjae Spears.

Field goals of 51 and 29 yards by Folk extended Tennessee's lead to 22-6. Miami answered on the following offensive series with a one-yard Huntley touchdown run. An intercepted two-point conversion attempt left the Dolphins trailing by two possessions with less than four minutes remaining in the game. After a failed onside kick attempt, Miami's defense forced Tennessee to punt with 2:42 remaining. Starting the drive on their own eight-yard line, Huntley was flagged for intentional grounding while in the end zone, adding an extra two points to the Titans' lead.

Tennessee scored a touchdown on a four-yard outside run by Pollard, who led all players with a game-high 88 yards on 22 carries.

Led by the running back duo of rookie Jaylen Wright and Raheem Mostert, the Miami Dolphins rushed for 193 yards in their 15-10 win over the New England Patriots on Sunday afternoon at Gillette Stadium.

Wright had his most productive day as a pro, rushing for a career-high 86 yards on 13 carries (6.6 avg.). Mostert also played a pivotal role in pacing Miami's rushing attack, tallying 19 carries for 80 yards (4.2 avg.). The Dolphins' front seven wreaked havoc on the Patriots' offensive line with a total of nine quarterback hits. DT Zach Sieler led the charge, totaling three quarterback hits and a sack, while DT Calais Campbell recorded two. LB Emmanuel Ogbah also made plays in New England's backfield, posting four tackles and a sack. QB Tyler Huntley, making his second start with the Dolphins, completed 18 of 31 passes for 194 yards and an interception. He also ran for seven yards on three carries.

Huntley led Miami to points on the opening possession of the game. An 18-yard pass to WR Tyreek Hill and a pair of completions to TE Jonnu Smith were key to the eight play, 38-yard drive that led to a 54-yard field goal by K Jason Sanders.

Sacks by Ogbah and Sieler forced a Patriots three-and-out, but an interception by CB Christian Gonzalez set New England up in Miami territory. Four plays later, RB Rhamondre Stevenson ran for a 33-yard touchdown run that gave the Patriots a 7-3 lead. Miami's next possession resulted in a 41-yard missed field goal, but the Dolphins defense forced a three-and-out, making New England punt with 12:54 remaining in the second quarter.

After a blocked punt, New England took over at the Miami 23-yard line. Miami's defense forced Patriots K Joey Slye to attempt a 33-yard field goal, which he missed wide right. With less than a minute in the half, WR Braxton Berrios returned a punt 12 yards to the New England 44-yard line. A completion to Smith put the Dolphins just outside of the red zone but a fumbled snap on a 51-yard field goal attempt left Miami trailing 7-3 at halftime.

Both teams traded field goals on their opening drives of the second half. Miami's eight play scoring drive contained a pair of Patriots penalties and a 12-yard run by Wright, which was capped by a 32-yard Sanders field goal. Following another New England three-and-out, the Dolphins continued chipping away at the Patriots' lead, as Sanders knocked through a 47-yard field goal to bring Miami to within one point.

The Dolphins retook the lead late in the fourth quarter as their ground game paved the way for a 15 play, 80-yard touchdown drive that took up 7:36 of game time. Fullback Alec Ingold had what would become the game-sealing score on a three-yard run up the middle. New England had two more opportunities to answer but came up short in Dolphins territory on both instances, one resulting in a fourth-down stop and the other as time expired.

Hill led all players with 69 receiving yards on six receptions. Smith totaled 62 yards on five catches, and WR Jaylen Waddle caught four passes for 46 yards. S Marcus Maye posted a season-high nine tackles and a pass deflection, while LB Jordyn Brooks totaled seven tackles.

Indianapolis	0	3	7	6	16

Despite a strong first half performance, the Miami Dolphins fell to the Indianapolis Colts 16-10 on Sunday afternoon at Lucas Oil Stadium.

Trailing by six with under two minutes left to play, Miami began a promising final drive as passes to TE Jonnu Smith and WRs Tyreek Hill and Malik Washington crossed into Indianapolis territory. A four-yard, third-down scramble by QB Tim Boyle brought Miami to Indianapolis' 41-yard line, but the Dolphins were not able to move the sticks any further.

Boyle entered the game in the third quarter for starting QB Tyler Huntley, who was ruled out with a right shoulder injury. Huntley completed 7-of-13 passes for 87 yards and a touchdown and recorded five carries for 20 yards (4.0 avg.), while Boyle completed 8-of-13 passes for 74 yards. The Dolphins' defense was able to contain QB Anthony Richardson, who completed just 10-of-24 passes for 129 yards and 14 carries for 56 yards.

Miami's offense was effective in both the run and pass game, as TE Jonnu Smith caught seven passes for a game-high 96 yards (13.7 avg.) and a touchdown, while RB De'Von Achane recorded 15 carries for a game-high 77 yards (5.1 avg). RB Raheem Mostert had 11 carries for 50 yards (4.5 avg.), while rookie RB Jaylen Wright totaled five carries for 33 yards (6.6 avg.).

Miami utilized the ground game to set up its aerial attack on the first scoring possession of the game. Six straight runs set up an 18-yard reception by Smith to put Miami in the red zone. Huntley and Smith connected once more with a nine-yard touchdown to finish off the 11-play, 58-yard scoring drive with 5:56 remaining in the first quarter.

The Colts made a valiant effort in responding on their next offensive possession. On the shoulders of its run game, Richardson led Indianapolis 72 yards downfield before a mishandled snap was recovered by DT Zach Sieler. Both Miami and Indianapolis punted the ball away twice before the Dolphins' last offensive possession of the half, which resulted in a 33-yard field goal by K Jason Sanders. Indianapolis answered with a score of its own, as K Matt Gay nailed a 52-yard field goal as time expired, giving Miami a 10-3 lead at halftime.

Indianapolis was first on the board in the second half after a Mostert fumble was recovered by LB Segun Olubi, which led to a seven-yard touchdown run by RB Tyler Goodson to tie the game at 10 a piece with 9:08 remaining in the third quarter. Miami had a promising drive late in the third quarter, but a fumble by FB Alec Ingold gave Indianapolis possession at their own 14-yard line. Miami and Indianapolis both traded punts to close out the third quarter.

The Colts orchestrated a 12-play, 69-yard scoring drive that took over six minutes off the clock to start the fourth quarter. Miami's defense prevented Indianapolis from crossing the pylon, but the Colts still took their first lead of the afternoon after Gay's 22-yard field goal.

The Dolphins had a chance to tie the game on their next drive, but Sanders 54-yard field goal attempt bounced off the left upright with 5:19 remaining in the game. Indianapolis added a 38-yard field goal on the following drive to extend their lead to 16-10.

QB Tua Tagovailoa led a strong game for the Dolphins' offense, but it wasn't enough as the Arizona Cardinals handed the Dolphins a 27-28 loss on Sunday afternoon at Hard Rock Stadium.

Tagovailoa completed 28-of-38 passes for 234 yards and a touchdown, adding 13 yards on three carries. The Dolphins also had success running the football, totaling 150 yards on 25 carries (6.0 avg.). RB De'Von Achane rushed for a season-high 97 yards on 10 carries (9.7 avg.), and adding another 50 yards and a TD through the air. RB Raheem Mostert found the end zone twice on the day and added 19 yards on nine carries (2.1 avg.).

Miami's offense started hot out of the gate, going 10 plays for 64 yards to find paydirt in the opening stanza. Mostert scored on the a one-yard run, giving Miami a 7-0 lead with 10:15 remaining in the first quarter. The Dolphins swiftly shutdown Arizona's opening drive, as CB Jalen Ramsey and DT Calais Campbell batted down a pair of passes by QB Kyler Murray.

Tagovailoa led Miami on another scoring drive in their next offensive possession, capped off by a 53-yard field goal from K Jason Sanders. Arizona responded on their next drive. The Cardinals traveled 70 yards downfield on nine plays to pull within three, cutting the Dolphins lead to 10-7 with 11:28 remaining in the second quarter.

Late in the second quarter, Tagovailoa found Hill for a gain of 30 yards to put the Dolphins in Arizona territory. Sanders knocked down a 25-yard field goal to give the Dolphins a 13-7 lead at halftime.

The Cardinals opened the second half with a career-long 57-yard field goal by K Chad Ryland to narrow the score to 13-10. Miami responded with Achane going for a season-long 47-yard run. He then hauled in a 12-yard touchdown pass from Tagovailoa to stretch Miami's lead to 20-10.

Ramsey's pick led to the Dolphins' longest scoring drive since Week 1 of the 2018 season. Miami powered to a 14-play, 97-yard drive. In the red zone, Tagovailoa found Achane, who took a screen 14 yards to give the Dolphins a 10-3 lead. SCORING SUMMARY

L.A. Rams	0	6	0	9	15

Miami's defense helped secure the 23-15 victory over the Rams by not allowing Los Angeles into the end zone.

The game started off hot for Miami, with QB Tua Tagovailoa connecting with WR Jaylen Waddle twice on the opening drive for gains of 19 and 36. Rookie WR Malik Washington capped off the drive with an 18-yard rushing touchdown, the first of his career, to give the Dolphins an early 7-0 lead. The Dolphins' defense started out just as strongly as their offense, with DT Zach Sieler tackling RB Kyren Williams in the backfield for a loss of 10 yards on the first play. On the next series, rookie LB Chop Robinson notched the second sack of his career, taking down QB Matthew Stafford to force another three-and-out.

The Rams began to pick up momentum on their next possession, but that was quickly halted as LB Anthony Walker Jr. picked off a pass by Stafford after DT Calais Campbell tipped it at the line of scrimmage, giving Miami the ball at their own 46-yard line. The Dolphins capitalized on the turnover, as a 15-yard run by RB De'Von Achane led to a 50-yard field goal by K Jason Sanders to extend Miami's lead to 10-0.

Following another Rams punt, Tagovailoa was picked off by LB Christian Rozeboom, but got the ball back a play later after DT Da'Shawn Hand forced Williams to fumble, which was recovered by CB Kendall Fuller. A strip-sack of Tagovailoa on the following drive led to the Rams' first points of the game with a 34-yard field goal by K Joshua Karty. Los Angeles would score once more as time expired in the second quarter, after an 11-play, 54-yard drive resulted in a career-long 55-yard field goal for Karty to cut Miami's lead to 10-6 at the break.

Coming out of the half, a missed 57-yard field goal attempt by Karty prevented Los Angeles from further chipping into the deficit. Miami capitalized on the field position to extend their lead on the following drive. Tagovailoa found TE Jonnu Smith, connecting on a pivotal on third-and-3, as Smith broke multiple tackles on his rumble to the Rams' one-yard line for a 33-yard gain. On the following play, WR Tyreek Hill caught a 1-yard touchdown pass from Tagovailoa, giving the Dolphins a 17-6 advantage. The Rams tacked on two more field goals while the game was still in reach, but after each score, Miami answered with points of their own.

On Miami's final scoring drive with less than seven minutes remaining in fourth quarter, Tagovailoa found WR Odell Beckham Jr. for a critical third down conversion and then rifled a 17-yard strike to Washington on the next play. Sanders made his third field goal of the day, giving Miami a 23-12 lead.

Karty made a 31-yard field goal that cut Miami's lead to eight, but the Dolphins came away with the ensuing onside kick, cementing the win.

Tagovailoa got Miami going on the game's opening drive, connecting with Achane for a gain of 17 yards and Hill for a gain of 16 to set the offense up in the red zone. On fourth-and-goal from the one-yard line, Tagovailoa completed a touchdown pass to Smith, giving Miami an early 7-0 lead.

QB Gardner Minshew led the Raiders into the red zone, but Miami held Las Vegas to a 27-yard field goal by K Daniel Carlson on their first posession. K Jason Sanders finished Miami's second drive with a 31-yard field goal to extend Miami's lead to 10-3. On the shoulders of rookie TE Brock Bowers, the Raiders marched down into Miami territory, finishing it off with a second Carlson field goal. His 27-yarder cut Miami's advantage to 10-6 at halftime.

After Las Vegas punted the ball away on their first possession of the second half, Miami strung together a 97-yard, 14-play drive. A 30-yard run by Achane led to an eight-yard touchdown from Tagovailoa to Hill to widen Miami's lead to 17-6. Bowers continued his high-level play into the second half, as his 23-yard catch, run and touchdown to cut Miami's lead to five. Bowers finished with a game-high 13 catches for 126 yards. Tagovailoa orchestrated the Dolphins' subsequent response, completing the drive with a two-yard Achane touchdown run, giving Miami a two-possession advantage.

The Raiders refused to let up, scoring a touchdown on their next drive on a 10-yard swing pass and run from Minshew to running back Ameer Abdullah to bring Las Vegas within five, 24-19. Tagovailoa answered quickly with a 57-yard touchdown strike to Smith and an interception by CB Jalen Ramsey all but sealed the victory for the Dolphins. Sanders knocked through a 46-yard field goal en route to closing out the Dolphins fourth win of the season. DTs Zach Sieler and Calais Campbell, as well as LB Emmanuel Ogbah, each recorded a sack. SCORING SUMMARY

The Miami Dolphins turned in a dominant 34-15 win over the New England Patriots on Sunday afternoon at Hard Rock Stadium, improving to 5-6 on the season ahead of a quick turnaround for a Thanksgiving night game in Green Bay later this week. QB Tua Tagovailoa led the day, completing 29-of-40 passes, throwing for 317 yards and recording his first four-touchdown performance since Week 3 of the 2023 season.

The aerial attack got a boost from WR Jaylen Waddle, who turned in a season-high 144 yards and a touchdown on eight receptions (18.0 avg.). TE Jonnu Smith totaled a team-high nine receptions for 87 yards (9.7 avg.) and a touchdown, and WR Tyreek Hill added five catches for 48 yards (9.6 avg.). RB De'Von Achane had two scores, as he tallied 56 scrimmage yards.

After both teams traded punts on their opening drives, New England rookie QB Drake Maye orchestrated a 12-play sequence that gave the Patriots a chance to strike first but a missed field goal stopped the drive.

Tagovailoa commanded an eight-play, 65-yard touchdown drive. The quarterback connected with Smith on three occasions, finding him for seven yards and the game's first score. This gave Miami a 7-0 lead with – a lead which they would not surrender for the rest of the game.

After rookie LB Chop Robinson's third career sack forced a Patriots three-and-out on the ensuing drive, Miami drove downfield and scored once again. This nine-play, 68-yard drive, which included completions of 14 and 17 yards to Waddle, was capped off by an nine-yard swing pass to Achane, who ran into the end zone to stretch the Dolphins' lead to 14-0. Tagovailoa continued to dominate in the second quarter, leading two more scoring drives, as Achane added another touchdown on an 11-yard pass and K Jason Sanders drilled a 21-yard field goal just before the half. The team entered the locker room with a 24-0 lead, thanks to another strong showing from the defense, who forced three consecutive Patriots three-and-outs in the stanza.

The Dolphins extended their lead in the third quarter, after Miami's defense forced a turnover, leading to the first points of the second half. On a third-and-3 from the 50-yard line, defensive tackle Zach Sieler sacked Maye, forcing a fumble that was recovered by linebacker Jordyn Brooks and returned to New England's 25-yard line. Two plays later, Tagovailoa found Waddle in the end zone for a 23-yard touchdown to give Miami a 31-0 lead with 1:37 left in the third quarter.

Despite Miami's 31-point lead entering the fourth quarter, the Patriots continued to battle. With 13:43 remaining in the game, Maye found tight end Austin Hooper on a fourth-and-15 play to get New England on the board with a 38-yard touchdown. The Patriots continued to chip into the lead, as cornerback Christian Gonzalez scooped up a fumble on a botched Miami handoff two drives later, returning it 63 yards for a touchdown. A converted two-point try by the Patriots brought the lead to within two scores, as the Dolphins held a 31-15 advantage with 10:10 to play.

New England's momentum was short-lived, however, as on their next offensive drive, Maye was picked off by linebacker Tyrel Dodson, who corralled the takeaway with one hand. Sanders nailed the 51-yard field goal that followed, extending Miami's lead back up to three scores and cementing the win.

Green Bay	14	10	3	3	30

Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa completed 37-of-46 passes for a season-high 365 yards and two touchdowns, but it wasn't enough to defeat Green Bay on Thanksgiving night at Lambeau Field, as Miami fell 30-17.

Tight end Jonnu Smith continued his streak of high-level play, leading all pass catchers with 10 receptions for 113 yards. Wide receiver Tyreek Hill caught six passes for 83 yards and a touchdown, while running back De'Von Achane added eight receptions for 56 yards and a touchdown to go along with his 14 rushing yards on seven carries.

Miami's defense forced a three-and-out on the game's opening drive, but a muffed punt gave the Packers the ball back in the red zone. On third-and-goal, Green Bay quarterback Jordan Love connected with wide receiver Jayden Reed for the three-yard touchdown to give the Packers an early 7-0 lead with 12:00 left in the first quarter. The Packers widened their lead later in the first.

On the next drive, Green Bay leaned on its ground game to pave the way for another score. Running back Emmanuel Wilson took a third-down carry for 15 yards to set the Packers up with a goal-to-go situation. Running back Josh Jacobs punched in a one-yard touchdown to put the crown on Green Bay's 12-play, 76-yard drive.

Miami's offense responded on their next drive. On a critical fourth down, Tagovailoa found wide receiver Jaylen Waddle for a 16-yard connection, which highlighted a 12-play, 55-yard drive that ended with a 33-yard field goal by kicker Jason Sanders. Love orchestrated Green Bay's next two scoring drives, leading to a 12-yard touchdown catch by Reed and a 46-yard field goal by kicker Brandon McManus which gave the Packers a 24-3 lead at halftime. McManus extended Green Bay's lead 27-3 on their first drive of the second half with a 24-yard field goal.

Facing a large deficit, Miami's offense began to chip away at the Packers' lead. Passes of 13 and 16 yards to Smith and a 16-yard strike over the middle of the field to Waddle created the Dolphins' first red zone opportunity of the game. On first-and-10 at Green Bay's 14-yard line, Tagovailoa completed a screen pass to Achane, who scampered into the end zone for Miami's first touchdown of the game. Tagovailoa completed a high-arching pass to Waddle on the two-point conversion that followed, making it 27-11 with 2:43 remaining in the third quarter.

After Miami's defense forced a punt, Tagovailoa engineered another promising drive that had the Dolphins at the Packers' one-yard line on second-and-goal, but they were unable to reach the end zone on the next three downs.McManus added a 33-yard field goal on Green Bay's next drive to extend their lead to 30-11 with 5:02 remaining

Still fighting late in the game, Tagovailoa led another touchdown drive which was capped by Hill catching a tipped pass in the end zone, bringing the Dolphins within 13 with 1:58 left in the game.

Trailing 26-23 with 52 seconds left in regulation, WR Malik Washington jumpstarted the pivotal drive with a 45-yard kick return to give Miami possession at their own 45-yard line. QB Tua Tagovailoa connected with WRs Jaylen Waddle and Tyreek Hill for gains of six and 14 yards to set up a 52-yard field goal by K Jason Sanders, his fourth of the afternoon, to send the game into overtime.

On the lone overtime possession, the Dolphins went on an eight-play, 70-yard drive which was capped by a 10-yard touchdown pass to TE Jonnu Smith, sealing Miami's thrilling 32-26 victory.

QB Tua Tagovailoa completed 33-of-47 passes (70.2 pct.) for 331 yards and two touchdowns. WR Tyreek Hill caught a team-high 10 passes for 115 yards (11.5 avg.) and a crucial fourth-down touchdown in the fourth quarter that gave the Dolphins a chance to make it a tie game. WR Jaylen Waddle, who hauled in the two-point conversion that followed Hill's score, totaled a season-high nine catches for 99 yards (11.0 avg.). RB De'Von Achane had six catches for 45 yards (7.5 avg.) to go along with his 24 rushing yards. The Dolphins' passing offense was hot from the jump. Completions of 20 yards to Waddle, 11 yards to T. Hill and 14 yards to Achane created a red zone opportunity for Miami. The second-year back finished off the drive with a two-yard touchdown run, giving Miami a 6-0 lead in the first.

Miami and New York exchanged field goals, giving the Dolphins a 9-3 lead with 14:53 remaining in the second quarter. On New York's next possession, an explosive 35-yard pass from QB Aaron Rodgers to WR Garrett Wilson and a 17-yard touchdown run by RB Isaiah Davis highlighted the six-play, 70-yard scoring drive. Miami answered with a seven-minute drive that ended on a 24-yard field goal by Sanders. Following another Carlson field goal, with 41 seconds left, Tagovailoa engineered a five-play, 31-yard drive that ended with a 57-yard field goal by Sanders, tying his career long, to give the Dolphins a 15-13 lead at halftime.

Coming out of the half, New York's aerial attack was in full force. Rodgers found Wilson downfield for a gain of 42 yards and a three-yard touchdown pass to WR Davante Adams game the Jets a 20-15 advantage. The Jets extended their lead on their next drive, as Carlson nailed a 40-yard field goal to put them up 23-15 heading into the fourth quarter.

Miami's first drive of the fourth quarter was a nine-play, 60-yard drive that ended with Hill's four-yard touchdown reception and Waddle's two-point conversion catch to make it a tie game, 23-23. The Jets took the lead once more after Carlson drilled a 42-yard field goal. With less than a minute remaining, the Dolphins offense orchestrated a drive that sent the game into overtime with Sanders 52-yard field goal.

MIAMI 12	HOUSTON 20

	1	2	3	4	F
Miami	0	6	6	0	12
Houston	3	10	7	0	20

Miami had one of its best defensive performances of the season on Sunday afternoon, holding Houston's offense to just 181 total yards, but the Dolphins were unable to come out victorious, falling 20-12 to the Texans. Rookie LB Chop Robinson and DT Zach Sieler led the charge, combining for three sacks (1.5 each), six quarterback hits and four tackles.

The Dolphins punted on their opening possession, which led to the Texans scoring on their first drive. A 44-yard field goal by K Ka'imi Fairbairn gave Houston an early 3-0 lead with 7:09 left in the first quarter.

Sieler sparked the next defensive drive. On first-and-10 from the Texans' 38-yard line, Sieler thundered into Houston's backfield, forcing QB C.J. Stroud to throw it away. Two plays later on third-and-3, Sieler made his presence felt once again, bringing down Stroud for his first sack of the game and forcing the Texans to punt.

Miami tied the game following the defensive stop. Tagovailoa, with a 10-yard pass over the middle to TE Jonnu Smith and nine-yard and 13-yard completions to RB De'Von Achane, led the Dolphins on a lengthy, 12-play, 45-yard drive that took up 7:40 of game time. K Jason Sanders sent a 55-yard field goal down the middle of the uprights to tie the game, 3-3, with 11:35 left in the second quarter.

After a three-and-out, the Texans got the ball back after Tagovailoa was strip-sacked by DE Will Anderson Jr., which was recovered by DT Tim Settle Jr. at the Miami 28-yard line. Houston took advantage of the takeaway, as Stroud connected with WR Nico Collins on a six-yard touchdown pass. Miami answered with points of its own on the next possession, as a 10-play, 52-yard drive led to a 36-yard field goal by Sanders to cut Houston's lead to four with 1:57 left in the second quarter.

Both teams traded turnovers on their next drives. Miami obtained possession of the ball after a mishandled snap was recovered by LB Jordyn Brooks, but Houston regained possession after S Calen Bullock intercepted Tagovailoa and returned to the Dolphins' five-yard line. Fairbairn converted a 23-yard chip shot to widen Houston's lead to 13-6 at halftime. The Texans further extended their lead on the opening possession of the second half after putting together a nine-play, 70-yard touchdown drive that was capped by a six-yard touchdown pass from Stroud to Collins.

Down by two scores, Tagovailoa orchestrated Miami's strongest drive of the game. He made several pivotal throws, including a 21-yard pass on 3rd-and-16 to WR Tyreek Hill and a seven-yard strike to the back-right corner of the end zone on fourth-and-two to Smith. This brought the Dolphins within eight with 4:30 left in the third quarter.

After the Dolphins defense forced a three-and-out with 3:03 remaining in the third quarter, Miami's scoring hopes were halted by a cornerback Derek Stingley Jr. interception. The Dolphins defense refused to let up, forcing the Texans to punt on their next two possessions, but it would not be enough as a Stingley Jr. interception finalized the 20-12 contest.

Tagovailoa completed 29-of-40 passes (72.5 pct.) for 196 yards, one touchdown and three interceptions. This was his eighth consecutive game with a completion percentage of 70.0 or better. Smith caught nine passes for 48 yards (5.3 avg.) and a touchdown. Rookie WR Malik Washington had a career day, catching five passes for 52 yards (10.2 avg.). Achane added seven receptions for 35 yards (5.0 avg.) and 12 carries for 41 yards (3.4 avg.).

CB Kader Kohou made the play of the game for the Dolphins defense in Miami's 29-17 win over San Francisco on Sunday evening at Hard Rock Stadium. With the 49ers driving down the field, 49ers QB Brock Purdy was picked off by Kohou.

Three plays later, RB De'Von Achane iced the game on a 50-yard touchdown run that gave him 120 rushing yards and a score on 17 carries (7.1 avg.). He also added a team-high 70 receiving yards on six catches (11.7 avg.) for a season-high 190 total yards.

From the opening kickoff, Miami's defense came to play. The 49ers' first drive ended in a swift three-and-out. A second-down sack by LB Jordyn Brooks led to Miami's second consecutive stop to start the game.

QB Tua Tagovailoa connected with Achane several times en route to Miami's first score, a 44-yard field goal by K Jason Sanders. San Francisco responded with a touchdown on their next drive, embarking on a 10-play, 70-yard drive that was capped off by a 16-yard completion from Purdy to WR Deebo Samuel that gave the 49ers a 7-3 lead with 14:14 remaining in the second quarter.

Miami answered on its next two drives. The next possession was kicked off with a 24-yard completion from Tagovailoa to WR Tyreek Hill. Sanders knocked down a 38-yard field goal. Following a defensive stop, Miami ventured 68 yards downfield on eight plays to notch their first touchdown of the game. RB Raheem Mostert had a catch of 13 yards and a run of 21 yards to set the Dolphins up in scoring position. Tagovailoa finished off the drive with a three-yard touchdown to Hill for the 100th passing touchdown of his career, giving the Dolphins a 13-7 lead. 49ers K Jake Moody converted a 21-yard chip shot that cut the Dolphins' lead to 13-10 heading into halftime.

Starting with the ball to begin the second half, Miami went 34 yards on eight plays with Sanders making a 54-yard field goal. On the 49ers first posession of the second half, a missed 41-yard field goal by Moody. Miami drove to set up Sanders' fourth field goal of the game, this one from 33 yards away.

San Francisco did not back down in the fourth quarter, as they chipped into the Dolphins' lead on a nine-play, 60-yard drive that ended on a two-yard passing touchdown from Purdy to tight end Eric Saubert. The 49ers, down by just two, had a chance to score on their next drive with 9:31 left in the game, but they could only manage 27 yards on four plays and were forced to punt the ball away.

Following the San Francisco punt, Miami stretched their lead to 22-17 with 2:10 left in the fourth quarter on a 48-yard field goal by Sanders.

Tagovailoa completed 22-of-34 passes (64.7 pct.) for 215 yards and a touchdown. TE Jonnu Smith caught all six of his targets for 62 yards. During the game, he set the single-season franchise record for receptions and receiving yards by a tight end. Brooks, DT Zach Sieler and LB Chop Robinson all came away with sacks. Robinson also had a pass deflection on a key third down in the red zone that resulted in a 49ers field goal.

The Miami Dolphins kept their playoff hopes alive on Sunday afternoon, defeating Cleveland 20-3 at Huntington Bank Field. With the win, the Dolphins climb to 8-8 on the season and are just one game back from the final AFC wild card spot. Miami's defense disrupted Cleveland all game long. The Browns totaled just 276 yards of offense, with QB Dorian Thompson-Robinson completing 24 of his 47 passing attempts (51.1 pct.) for only 170 yards and an interception.

QB Tyler Huntley was dynamic in his fourth start of the season, making plays with both his arm and his legs. He ended the game completing 22-of-26 passes (84.6 pct.) for 225 yards and a touchdown, adding a game-high 52 rushing yards and a touchdown on seven carries (7.4 avg.).

Huntley started out the game strong, completing six of his first seven passes. He led Miami into scoring position on its second drive of the game, with K Jason Sanders nailing a 54-yard field goal to give the Dolphins an early 3-0 lead with 5:46 left in the first quarter. This was Sanders' ninth consecutive made field goal from 50-plus yards away, bringing his season total from such a distance to 12-of-14.

The Browns answered on their next offensive possession, as Thompson-Robinson and RB Jerome Ford led a 14-play, 66-yard drive that took up 7:20 of game time. Cleveland was able to move the ball inside of Miami's 10-yard line, but the defense held strong in the goal-to-go situation, forcing K Dustin Hopkins into a 25-yard field goal.

Punts from both teams maintained the 3-3 stalemate well into the second quarter when LB Tyrel Dodson, who had a game-high 15 tackles on the evening, made a pivotal defensive play for the Dolphins. On a first-and-10 pass intended for WR Jerry Jeudy, Dodson dropped back into coverage and picked off Thompson-Robinson at the 50-yard line. Dodson, a six-year veteran, has recorded both of his two career interceptions over his seven games this season with Miami.

The Dolphins defense made another crucial play later in the second quarter, stuffing RB D'Onta Foreman on fourth-and-1 to retain possession of the ball with 45 seconds left in the first half. Huntley led Miami into field goal position on this quick drive, completing passes of 12, seven and nine yards to rookie WR Malik Washington to set up a 39-yard field goal by Sanders as time expired to extend the lead to 6-3 at halftime.

Huntley continued his precise passing coming out of the break. He completed all four of his passes on Miami's first drive of the second half, with a 16-yard strike to WR River Cracraft presenting the Dolphins with their first trip to the red zone of the game. On the ensuing play, Huntley scrambled past the line of scrimmage and ran 13 yards into the end zone for a touchdown to widen Miami's lead to 13-3 with 11:04 remaining in the third quarter. This was Huntley's second rushing touchdown of the season.

The Dolphins defense continued to make big-time plays throughout the second half, including a strip sack by LB Emmanuel Ogbah that was recovered by DT Da'Shawn Hand, as well as a fourth-down stop in the red zone that preserved Miami's 10-point lead in the fourth quarter.

The offense iced the game with 3:38 left in the fourth, as Huntley connected with TE Jonnu Smith for a seven-yard score that gave the Dolphins a 20-3 lead. The touchdown was Smith's seventh receiving touchdown of the year, tying the single-season record by a Miami tight end. WR Tyreek Hill led the Dolphins with a team-high nine receptions for a game-high 105 yards (11.7 avg.). Washington had four receptions for 41 yards (10.3 avg.).

	1	2	3	4	F
Miami	6	0	0	14	20
N.Y. Jets	0	15	3	14	32

Miami started off their season finale by scoring the first six points of the game, but ultimately fell 32-20 to the N.Y. Jets on Sunday afternoon at MetLife Stadium.

The defense ignited Miami's first scoring drive. On the Jets' first offensive play, S Jevón Holland deflected a pass from QB Aaron Rodgers that was picked off by LB Tyrel Dodson, marking his second interception in the last two games and his third takeaway of the season. K Jason Sanders finished off the ensuing Miami drive with a 26-yard field goal to give the Dolphins a 3-0 lead with 11:46 remaining in the first quarter. Both defenses came away with stops on their next three possessions, which led to Miami's longest scoring drive of the game.

Starting at their own 14-yard line, Miami went 76 yards on nine plays – which included a 61-yard run by RB De'Von Achane – and ended the drive with a 28-yard field goal by Sanders to end the first quarter. The Jets put together a strong second quarter after Miami won the initial 15 minutes of action. Touchdown drives of 79 and 39 yards, both capped off by passes from Rodgers, gave the Jets a 15-6 lead at halftime.

Following a Miami fumble on their opening drive of the second half, the Jets widened their lead to 18-6 with a 20-yard field goal by K Greg Joseph to end a 10-play, 47-yard drive. Down by two possessions, the Dolphins answered with a 14-play, 78-yard scoring drive that took up 7:23 of game time. On this scoring drive, QB Tyler Huntley completed 5-of-7 passes for 53 yards. Achane, who finished the evening with 11 carries for 121 yards (11.0 avg.), ran in the 15-yard rushing touchdown to bring the Dolphins within five of the Jets' lead with 14:12 remaining in the fourth quarter.

This began a streak of four consecutive scoring possessions in the final quarter. Following a Jets touchdown, Miami answered with another touchdown of their own. Huntley found TE Jonnu Smith in the end zone for a four-yard score with 5:21 remaining in the fourth. This gave Smith his eighth receiving touchdown of the season, which is the most by a tight end in franchise history. He now holds the single-season franchise record for receptions, receiving yards and touchdowns by a tight end. The Jets extended their lead once more with a nine play, 70-yard touchdown drive that gave New York a 12-point lead with 2:30 left in the game.

On the evening, Huntley completed 25-of-41 passes for 227 yards (61.0 pct.), one touchdown and two interceptions, adding three carries for 16 yards (5.3 avg.). Achane's 121 rushing yards were a season-high and the most he's had in a game since Week 5 of the 2023 campaign. Smith led all pass catchers with a game-high nine receptions for 56 yards (6.2 avg.) and a score. Rookie WR Malik Washington caught four passes for 48 yards (12.0 avg.) and added three kickoff returns for 122 yards (40.7 avg.), including a career-high 67-yard return in the second quarter. DT Zach Sieler ended a very productive 2024 campaign with six tackles, two quarterback hits and 1.5 sacks. DT Calais Campbell recorded a sack of his own, while LB Emmanuel Ogbah added a 0.5 sack.

STEPHEN ROSS

CHAIRMAN OF THE BOARD / MANAGING GENERAL PARTNER
COLLEGE: MICHIGAN
NFL: 17TH SEASON
DOLPHINS: 17TH SEASON

Stephen M. Ross, Chairman and Founder of Related Ross and Non-Executive Chairman and Founder of Related Companies, the most prominent privately-owned real estate firm in the United States, first invested in the Miami Dolphins in February 2008, and in 2009, assumed the responsibilities of managing general partner of both the Miami Dolphins and Hard Rock Stadium. The role is the culmination of one of his long-held dreams -- Ross grew up in South Florida and the Dolphins have been a lifetime passion for him.

Throughout the Dolphins organization, Ross' ethos of building a first-class team on and off the field is etched deep. His more than $1 billion of private investment in Hard Rock Stadium and its surrounding properties has transformed the iconic venue into a global entertainment destination that showcases the best Miami has to offer. From world-class dining to arts, culture and luxury hospitality, Hard Rock Stadium now delivers an elevated guest experience that is unparalleled in professional sports. As a result of the privately-funded renovation, Hard Rock Stadium attracted and secured Super Bowl LIV – which coincided with the 100th season of the NFL – the 2021 and 2026 College Football Playoff National Championships, Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, 2026 FIFA World Cup, major concerts, international soccer matches and a host of world-class events.

With football, Ross has demonstrated a steadfast commitment to provide coaches, support staff and players the necessary resources to build a winning team that will compete consistently for championships. He invested $135 million into the state-of-the-art Baptist Health Training Complex, which opened in July 2021. Completed by Moss Construction with interior design by Rockwell Group and architecture by ROSSETTI, the 217,200 square-foot best-in-class venue was meticulously planned to create a contemporary, welcoming training environment for coaches, players, and staff. It includes a 92,200 square foot indoor field, two full natural grass outdoor fields, a two-story weight room with a cardio deck, a state-of-the-art hydrotherapy area, cryotherapy and isolation tanks and much more.

In the annual NFLPA Player Team Report Cards survey, Ross received the highest ownership grade among all NFL team owners and the Dolphins were ranked first among all 32 teams in 2024, which scores the player experience in a variety of categories. As a result of Ross' investment, the Dolphins received an A-or-higher rating in all 11 categories, including first overall in weight room, training room and training staff, food/cafeteria and team travel. In 2023, the team was ranked second in the NFL in this survey. Ross has also invested in the players' personal and professional development off the field, creating and funding the Dolphins Business Combine, an annual three-day event which allows players to meet with business leaders across a variety of industries and receive training on topics like personal finance, real estate and investments.

In 2016, Ross named Chris Grier as general manager and in 2019 gave him full control of football operations. The team has quickly improved under Grier's leadership, including four consecutive winning seasons (2020-23), marking a first for the franchise since 2000-03. In 2022, Ross made an innovative hire at head coach, selecting Mike McDaniel, who at the time had not received a head coach interview request from another team. Ross identified McDaniel's ingenuity, authentic leadership and outside-the-box thinking as notable traits for a head coach, and in his first two years with the franchise, McDaniel led the team to the playoffs, something Miami had not done in more than 20 years.

Ross, as a sports entrepreneur, is known for his attention to detail and thinking outside the box. He is responsible for orchestrating El Clásico Miami – the first-ever match between archrivals FC Barcelona and Real Madrid C.F. in North America – which stands as the highest revenue grossing soccer match in U.S. history. When the Miami Open tennis tournament began to explore leaving its long-time home in Key Biscayne, Florida, Ross stepped in to propose hosting the tournament at Hard Rock Stadium, building a custom tennis complex that is now considered one of the best in professional tennis in terms of guest experience and player amenities.

In April 2021, Ross became the Chairman and Owner of the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix. The circuit is 5.41km, has 19 corners, three straights and three DRS zones with an estimated top speed of 320km/h. Hard Rock Stadium sits at the heart of the circuit. Ross and Managing Partner of the Formula 1® Crypto.com Miami Grand Prix, Vice Chairman and CEO Tom Garfinkel worked with specialist designers to create a racetrack that provides great racing and unique fan experiences that are reflective of the diverse and dynamic nature of Miami. The inaugural race was named the Best New Event of 2022 by the Sports Business Journal, and in its first three years, the event has delivered an estimated economic impact of more than $1 billion to the South Florida community.

Ross is deeply committed to supporting and uniting the community that supports the Dolphins. Under his stewardship, the Dolphins have raised more than $75 million for local cancer research through the Dolphins Cancer Challenge. In June 2020, Ross and the Miami Dolphins Foundation announced a year-long Food Relief Program with a $3 million investment and an additional $1 million from the Lennar Foundation. The initiative provided 1,000 meals each day from Centerplate and local minority-owned restaurants to churches, community groups and those in need during the pandemic.

In August 2019, Ross was inducted into the National Football Foundation Leadership Hall of Fame. The prestigious award recognizes the country's most influential individuals who have ascended to the highest levels of success and exhibited the critical leadership qualities that transcend ordinary enterprises.

Furthermore, Ross has used his platform to harness the unifying power of sport to advance race relations across the country through the establishment of the nonprofit Ross Initiative in Sports for Equality (RISE). The organization's efforts have been so impactful that RISE was recognized in 2017 by ESPN's Humanitarian Awards with the Stuart Scott ENSPIRE Award. The award celebrates those who have taken risk and used an innovative approach to help the disadvantaged through the power of sports. Ross' efforts through RISE were honored as they personify the ethos of fairness, ethics, respect and fellowship with others. This also connects to Ross' vision of the Dolphins' FOOTBALL UNITES™ program to effectuate positive social change. Under his leadership, the Dolphins organization actively embraces the diversity and intersections that make up South Florida, working with groups to improve relationships and foster understanding. In February 2020, the Miami Dolphins were honored by the Fritz Pollard Alliance with the Paul J. Tagliabue Award for their leadership in advancing diversity. Ross was among Sports Business Journal's Leaders in Diversity and Inclusive Hiring honorees in March 2021.

In May 2013, Ross pledged to give more than half of his estate to philanthropic causes and charitable organizations, including South Florida-based institutions. The commitment was made through the Giving Pledge, a long-term global initiative that aims to inspire deeper engagement in philanthropy and increase charitable giving globally.

Ross graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree and from Wayne State University Law School with a Juris Doctor degree. He later received a Master of Laws in Taxation from New York University School of Law. In 2004, the University of Michigan renamed its business school the Stephen M. Ross School of Business at the University of Michigan and in 2011, the school awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree at its commencement.

CHRIS GRIER

GENERAL MANAGER
COLLEGE: MASSACHUSETTS
DOLPHINS: 25TH SEASON

Chris Grier is the general manager of the Miami Dolphins, a title he's held since 2016, and oversees personnel and all football operations for the club. The 2024 campaign marked his 25th season with the franchise, rising from area scout to national scout, director of college scouting and general manager during that time.

The Dolphins have improved under Grier's leadership, posting four consecutive winning seasons from 2020-23, a feat the franchise had not accomplished in more than 20 years. The Dolphins also reached the postseason in back-to-back seasons in 2022 and 2023, something Miami hadn't done since 2000-01.

Grier has utilized all avenues to acquire talented players – providing both star power and depth to the roster. Among the starters on the 2024 Dolphins team, half of them were either drafted by Miami or identified and signed as undrafted college free agents. Grier acquired several impact players via free agency, such as tight end Jonnu Smith, center Aaron Brewer, linebackers Jordyn Brooks and Anthony Walker Jr. and decorated veterans such as defensive tackle Calais Campbell and safety Jordan Poyer. The team continued to lean on players acquired via blockbuster trade, like wide receiver Tyreek Hill and cornerback Jalen Ramsey, while also benefitting from an exceptional season by defensive tackle Zach Sieler, who was acquired off waivers by the Dolphins in 2019, and notable play from the 2024 rookie class. Grier also signed homegrown talents like wide receiver Jaylen Waddle and quarterback Tua Tagovailoa to long-term contract extensions ahead of the year, securing their production for years to come.

In 2024, the Dolphins won six of their last nine games after opening the season with a 2-6 record and improved in nearly every metric over the second half of the year. Miami was one of four teams to have three 700-plus receivers and the only team to have three players with 75+ receptions this season. Tagovailoa led the league with a 72.9 completion percentage, which set a single-season franchise record and was the third-best mark in NFL history.

Smith rewrote the Dolphins record book as he set franchise records by a tight end in receptions (88), receiving yards (884) and receiving touchdowns (8). Running back De'Von Achane, who Grier selected in the second round of the 2023 NFL Draft, set franchise records in receptions (78) and receiving touchdowns (6) by a running back and added the third-most scrimmage yards (1,499) by a running back in franchise history. Waddle eclipsed 4,000 career receiving yards, while Hill led the team in receiving yards for the third-consecutive year.

Miami's defense also had success in 2024 as it finished fourth in total defense (314.4) and was the only team to not allow a 100-yard rusher this season. Sieler recorded 10-plus sacks (10.0) for the second consecutive season, becoming the first Dolphin to do so since Cameron Wake (2016-17). Brooks recorded the most tackles (143) by a Dolphin since Zach Thomas. Campbell served as a leader both on and off the field for Miami, notching 5.0 sacks as a team captain in his 17th season, while Poyer led the defensive backs in tackles (98). Linebacker Tyrel Dodson, who Grier claimed off waivers from Seattle in Week 11, was the only linebacker in the NFL to tally three interceptions on the season, which he accomplished in the final eight games. Linebacker Chop Robinson, Miami's first-round selection (21st overall) in 2024, recorded the fifth-most sacks (6.0) by a rookie in franchise history.

On special teams, kicker Jason Sanders had a career year in 2024, with 37 field goals made, including 27 consecutive to close the season, a franchise record. Sanders also made nine-consecutive field goals of more than 50 yards, included several game-winning or game tying kicks, and was the only kicker in the NFL to make at least one field goal in all 17 games.

The 2023 Dolphins won 11 games for the first time since 2008. Miami led the NFL in total offense (401.3) for the first time since 1994 and ranked second in scoring offense (29.2). Miami also had a top 10 defense (10th, 318.3 yards allowed per game) for the first time since 2010. Tagovailoa, who Grier selected fifth overall in the 2020 NFL Draft, became the first Dolphin to lead the league in passing yards (4,624) since 1992 (Dan Marino). Hill, who Grier swung a blockbuster trade for in 2022, became the first Dolphin to ever lead the league in receiving yards (1,799), which was a new single-season franchise record, surpassing his own mark of 1,710 from 2022. Running back Raheem Mostert, a free agent signing in 2022, also broke team records for rushing touchdowns (18) and total touchdowns (23).

Tagovailoa (4,624 passing yards), Mostert (1,012 rushing yards), Hill (1,799 receiving yards) and Waddle (1,014 receiving yards), who was drafted by Grier with the sixth overall pick in the 2021 NFL Draft, all hit major yardage milestones in 2023. It was the first time in Dolphins history the team had a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season. Mostert became the oldest 1,000-yard rusher in the NFL since 2018 (Adrian Peterson) and Waddle became the first player in team history with three straight 1,000-yard receiving seasons.

Defensively, the Dolphins shattered the team sacks record of 49.0 (1983 and 2005) with 56.0 sacks. Sieler, who signed to a contract extension shortly before the 2023 season, became the first Dolphins defensive tackle to ever top double-digit sacks (10.0) in a season. Chubb, who Grier traded for during the 2022 season, had 11.0 sacks, the most by a Dolphin since 2017 (Cameron Wake). It was the first time Miami had teammates with double-digit sacks in the same season since 2003.

Grier put together a 2023 roster that included 10 different players with a combined 33 Pro Bowl appearances, and six of the NFL's top 100 players according to the NFL's Top 100 list, as voted by the players.

Miami had six players selected to the Pro Bowl in 2023, tied for second-most in the AFC and tied for fourth-most in the NFL. Three of those selections were first-time Pro Bowl players in Tagovailoa, Mostert and fullback Alec Ingold, who Miami also signed as a free agent in 2022 and was extended at the start of the 2023 season. Hill was a unanimous first-team All-Pro selection and named to his eighth straight Pro Bowl. Grier traded for Ramsey in the 2023 offseason and he earned his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl selection despite missing the first seven games of the season due to injury. Miami's sixth Pro Bowl selection was tackle Terron Armstead, who Grier signed as an unrestricted free agent in 2022 and has been a captain and Pro Bowl selection in both seasons with the Dolphins.

The Dolphins finished the 2022 season with a 9-8 record and secured a playoff berth for the first time since 2016 and just the third time in the past 20 seasons. With a talented roster and under new head coach Mike McDaniel, the Dolphins finished with a top 10 total offense for the first time since 1995, ranking sixth (364.5 yards per game). Miami was second in yards per play (6.1) and fourth in passing offense (265.4) despite starting three different quarterbacks for multiple games for the first time since 2007 and playing the third-most difficult schedule (.537) in the NFL.

Tagovailoa had his best season to date in 2022, becoming the youngest NFL quarterback since Dan Marino in 1984 to lead the league in passer rating (105.5). Tagovailoa also led the NFL in red zone passer rating (112.2), third-down passer rating (130.1) and yards per attempt (8.9).

In Hill's first season with the team, he shattered his career highs and the franchise's single-season records for receiving yards (1,710) and receptions (119), finishing second in the league in both. His 1,710 receiving yards were 321 more than the previous Dolphins record that stood for nearly 40 years (Mark Clayton, 1,389 yards in 1984). It was also the most receiving yards by any player in NFL history on his first season with a new team. He earned first-team All-Pro honors and was selected to his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl.

Grier selected Waddle in the first round of the 2021 NFL Draft (sixth overall) and he put together one of the best seasons by a receiver in Dolphins history in 2022 following a historic rookie campaign in 2021. Waddle caught 75 passes for 1,356 yards and eight touchdowns. His 18.1 yards per catch led the NFL while his 1,356 receiving yards were third in Dolphins history.

Hill and Waddle combined for 3,066 receiving yards, which was the third-most by a pair of teammates in a season in NFL history.

Miami's defense also had success in 2022 as it finished fourth in the league in rush defense (103.0). Defensive tackle Christian Wilkins, who Grier drafted in the first round (13th overall) in the 2019 NFL Draft, recorded a career-high 98 tackles. His 98 stops were the most in a season by an NFL defensive lineman since 1994. Linebacker Jaelan Phillips, a first-round pick (18th overall) of Grier's in 2021, led the team in sacks for the second straight season with 7.0. Cornerback Xavien Howard (2016, second round) earned his fourth Pro Bowl selection.

In 2021, the Dolphins won eight of their final nine games, including their final six at home. Grier helped construct a defensive unit that featured eight starters drafted by the Dolphins and all 11 starters under the age of 30. The group scored five defensive touchdowns, its most in a single season since 2001. Miami swept New England for the first time since 2000 and had two AFC East sweeps (N.Y. Jets) for the first time since 2016.

Miami's 2021 draft class earned key roles immediately as four players were regular starters as rookies. Waddle broke the NFL's rookie receptions record, a mark that had stood for nearly 20 years, with 104 catches and became the first rookie in Dolphins history to total 1,000 receiving yards. Phillips broke Miami's rookie sack record and finished second among all NFL rookies in the statistic with 8.5. Safety Jevon Holland was the only player in the AFC in 2021 to have multiple sacks, interceptions and fumble recoveries. Offensive lineman Liam Eichenberg was one of just 10 NFL rookie offensive linemen to start at least 16 games.

Howard earned his third Pro Bowl selection in 2021 after intercepting five passes and scoring two defensive touchdowns. He became the eighth player in team history to have at least five interceptions in three different seasons. Wilkins totaled 89 tackles, which was tied for the most by any NFL defensive lineman since 2013 before he topped that figure in 2022.

In 2020, the Dolphins won 10 games for just the second time in the past decade despite having the second-youngest roster in the NFL. The five-game improvement from 2019 was tied for the best in the league that season and tied for the third-best in team history. The Dolphins set a team record by starting 10 different rookies that year, including eight in one game in a Week 15 win vs. New England.

With several offseason additions, Grier helped build one of the NFL's best defenses in 2020. Miami led the league in third-down defense (28.8 pct.) and takeaways (29) and finished sixth in scoring (21.1 points allowed per game).

Two of Grier's draft picks – Howard and kicker Jason Sanders (2018, seventh round) earned first-team All-Pro honors in 2020, marking the first time since 2006 (Zach Thomas and Jason Taylor) the Dolphins had two first-team All-Pro honorees in the same season. Defensive tackle Raekwon Davis was named to the PFWA's All-Rookie team after Grier selected him in the second round of the 2020 NFL Draft.

In 2019, when Grier was given full control of football operations, the Dolphins steadily improved despite having the youngest roster in the NFL, winning five of their final nine games. Wilkins led all rookie defensive linemen with 56 tackles, the fifth-most by an NFL rookie defensive lineman since 2015.

From 2016-18, Grier oversaw the draft and both pro and college scouting departments. In those three drafts, Grier selected seven different players who wound up earning top 10 contracts at their respective positions during their playing careers. He was responsible for the acquisition of multiple All-Pro and Pro Bowl players including Howard, Sanders, wide receiver/returner Jakeem Grant, tackle Laremy Tunsil and safety Minkah Fitzpatrick. Other notable selections included linebacker Jerome Baker and running back Kenyan Drake.

Baker was a third-round pick in 2018 and finished his rookie season tied for 11th among NFL rookies in tackles (76). He quickly took on a leadership role and was elected a team captain in 2019, just his second season in the league. Baker later became the first Dolphins player since at least 2000 to record 500-plus tackles in his first five seasons in the league.

In 2017, the Dolphins finished the season with 10 rookies on the active roster and four more on injured reserve or non-football illness lists. Miami was one of just three teams to play eight rookies on defense and one of just six to have at least four rookies start games on defense. Six undrafted rookie free agents contributed to the team that season. Defensive tackle Davon Godchaux finished his rookie campaign fourth among all NFL defensive linemen with 40 tackles (26 solo), despite being a fifth-round pick.

In his first draft as general manager in 2016, Grier selected Howard in the second round. In seven NFL seasons, Howard has earned a first-team All-Pro nod (2020), been selected to the Pro Bowl four times (2018, 2020-22), led the NFL in interceptions in one season (2020), tied for the NFL lead in interceptions in another (2018) and totaled more interceptions since he entered the league than any other NFL player.

The team also drafted Drake and Grant in 2016, who became just the second rookie duo in team history to combine for a kickoff return and punt return for a touchdown in the same season. In 2020, Grant earned second-team All-Pro honors as a returner.

Grier helped turn more than half the roster over in 2016, as the team entered training camp with more than 45 new players acquired during the offseason. The results were a four-game improvement from the previous season, the fifth-best mark in the NFL. The Dolphins finished 10-6 with a playoff berth, the team's best record and first playoff appearance since 2008.

As the team's director of college scouting (2007-15), Grier was part of a front office that discovered numerous Pro Bowl players. During that time, the Dolphins drafted seven players that combined for 14 Pro Bowl selections with the team. The list includes tackle Jake Long (2008-10), defensive tackle Paul Soliai (2011), punter Brandon Fields (2013), center Mike Pouncey (2013-15), safety Reshad Jones (2015, 2017), wide receiver Jarvis Landry (2015-17) and running back Jay Ajayi (2016).

Grier was also successful at finding value late in drafts. Jones, a fifth-round pick in 2010, was named the team's co-MVP following the 2015 season after he became the first player in team history to record at least 100 tackles, four interceptions and two sacks in a season. Ajayi was also a fifth-round pick (2015) and became the fourth player in NFL history to rush for 200 yards in three games during the same season. Ajayi's 1,272 rushing yards in 2016 were third-most in Dolphins history.

Prior to being the team's director of college scouting, Grier served as an area scout with the club from 2000-02, before being promoted to national scout/assistant director of college scouting in 2003. Miami won the AFC East during his first season with the team.

Grier started with the New England Patriots as an intern in 1994. He joined the club on a full-time basis the following year, serving as a regional scout until he joined the Dolphins in 2000. In 1996, Grier was part of a New England staff that won the AFC Championship. He helped scout several players for a Patriots roster that went on to win Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX.

Grier has worked with several of football's most successful coaches and executives throughout his career and that has helped shape his football philosophy. His father, Bobby Grier, is the former vice president of player personnel for the Patriots and senior personnel advisor with the Houston Texans. Chris has also worked with and learned under Pro Football Hall of Fame coach Bill Parcells and legendary coaches Bill Belichick, Pete Carroll and Nick Saban.

Grier attended the University of Massachusetts-Amherst where he majored in journalism and played football for two years before injuries ended his career. He spent his final two years there as an undergraduate assistant.

Chris' brother, Michael, is currently the general manager of the NHL's San Jose Sharks. When Michael was appointed to the position in 2022, he became the first Black general manager in NHL history. Before his tenure in front offices, he played for the Edmonton Oilers, Washington Capitals, San Jose Sharks and Buffalo Sabres.

A native of Holliston, Mass., Grier and his wife, Paige, have two sons, Landon and Jackson.

MIKE

HEAD COACH
COLLEGE: YALE
DOLPHINS: THIRD SEASON

CHAMPIONSHIP 2016, 2019

Mike McDaniel was named the 11th head coach in team history on Feb. 7, 2022. The 2024 season marked McDaniel's 18th in the NFL and third as a head coach.

McDaniel led the team to the postseason in both 2022 and 2023, which marked Miami's first back-to-back playoff appearances in more than 20 years (2000-01). In doing so, McDaniel became just the third head coach in Dolphins history to make back-to-back playoff appearances in his first two seasons, joining Don Shula (1970-71) and Dave Wannstedt (2000-01).

Miami has made big strides in three years under McDaniel. In 2024, the Dolphins were one of four teams to have three players with 700-plus receiving yards, and the only team to have three players with 75-plus receptions. With McDaniel as the play-caller, the offense set a franchise record in team receptions (413) and finished with the fourth-best average time of possession (31:43) in franchise history. Quarterback Tua Tagovailoa led the NFL in completion percentage (72.9) and red zone passer rating (120.2). His completion percentage was the best mark in franchise history and third best in NFL history. Tight end Jonnu Smith had the best season of his career and broke team records by a tight end for receptions (88) and receiving yards (884), which stood since 2004 (Randy McMichael), and receiving touchdowns (8). Running back De'Von Achane tallied the third-most scrimmage yards (1,499) by a running back in franchise history, and became the first Dolphin to record at least 750 rushing yards and 500 receiving yards in a single season. Achane led NFL running backs in both receptions and receiving yards, while setting franchise records in receptions (78) and receiving touchdowns (6) by a running back.

Miami's defense was among the top in the NFL in 2024, finishing fourth in total defense (314.4) which was the best mark in franchise history since 2010 and the first top five finish since 2006. The unit finished ninth in run defense (103.7) and was the only team to not allow a 100-yard rusher this season. Miami has not allowed a 100-yard rusher since Week 1 of the 2023 season. The 33-game streak is the longest active streak in the NFL and longest streak in franchise history since a 38-game streak (1970-73). Defensive tackle Zach Sieler recorded 10-plus sacks (10.0) for the second consecutive season, becoming the first Dolphin to do so since Cameron Wake (2016-17). His 10.0 sacks in 2024 were the second-most among interior defensive linemen in the NFL and tied himself for the most by a defensive tackle in franchise history. Defensive tackle Calais Campbell became the only player aged 38 or older to record 5-plus sacks (5.0) in franchise history. Linebacker Jordyn Brooks led the team in tackles (143), which were the most by a Dolphin since Zach Thomas (2006).

On special teams, kicker Jason Sanders had a career year in 2024, with 37 field goals made, including 27 consecutive to close the season, a franchise record. Sanders also made nine-consecutive field goals of more than 50 yards, included several game-winning or game tying kicks, and was the only kicker in the NFL to make at least one field goal in all 17 games.

In 2023, the Dolphins recorded their first 11-win season in 15 years and led the league in total offense (401.3) for the first time since 1994, with McDaniel serving as the offensive play-caller. The unit also led the league in passing offense (265.5), yards per carry (5.1) and quarterback hits allowed (59), while finishing second in scoring offense (29.2). Tagovailoa led the NFL in passing yards (4,624), something a Miami quarterback had not done since 1992 (Dan Marino). Running back Raheem Mostert (1,012) had his first 1,000-yard rushing season at 31 years old and broke team records for rushing touchdowns (18), which stood since 2002 (Ricky Williams), and total touchdowns (21), which stood since 1984 (Mark Clayton). Wide receiver Tyreek Hill (1,799) had the seventh-most receiving yards in NFL history and broke his own team record set a season ago. Wide receiver Jaylen Waddle (1,014) became the first player in team history to post three consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons. It was the first time in team history that Miami had a 4,000-yard passer, 1,000-yard rusher and two 1,000-yard receivers in the same season.

McDaniel helped six Dolphins reach the Pro Bowl – Hill, Tagovailoa, Mostert, fullback Alec Ingold, tackle Terron Armstead and cornerback Jalen Ramsey – something the team had not accomplished since 2002. Tagovailoa became the first Dolphins quarterback to be selected to the Pro Bowl since Dan Marino in 1995. Ingold and Mostert also earned their first career Pro Bowl nods. In addition to his eighth straight Pro Bowl, Hill earned unanimous first-team All-Pro honors.

Miami's defense also improved in McDaniel's second season. The unit finished in the top 10 in total defense (10th, 318.3) for the first time since 2010. Miami posted a team-record 56.0 sacks and defensive tackle Zach Sieler became the first defensive tackle in Dolphins history with double-digit sacks (10.0) in a season. Miami had a sack in all 17 regular-season games and had four interceptions returned for a touchdown, the second-most in single-season team history. The Dolphins had a takeaway in 12 consecutive games to finish the season, including the playoff game.

In his first season at the helm, McDaniel became the fifth coach in Dolphins history to lead his team to the playoffs and just the sixth to post a winning record (9-8) in his first year. Under his leadership, four players earned Pro Bowl selections – Armstead, Hill, linebacker Bradley Chubb and cornerback Xavien Howard. It marked the team's most Pro Bowl selections since 2016. McDaniel led the team to a playoff berth for the first time since 2016 despite starting three different quarterbacks throughout the season.

As the offensive play-caller, McDaniel helped the Dolphins offense finish in the top 10 for the first time since 1995. Miami averaged 364.5 yards per game, which ranked sixth in the league, and 6.14 yards per play, which was second. The Dolphins finished 11th in scoring offense (23.4 points per game), the team's best finish since 2014.

Several players had the best seasons of their career in their first year in McDaniel's offense. Tagovailoa led the NFL in passer rating (105.5), becoming the youngest NFL quarterback to do that since Dan Marino in 1984. He also led the league in red zone passer rating (112.2), third-down passer rating (130.1) and yards per attempt (8.9). Tagovailoa's 3,548 passing yards and 25 passing touchdowns were both career highs.

Hill broke an NFL record for most receiving yards in a player's first season with a new team with 1,710. That mark also broke Miami's single-season franchise record that stood for nearly 40 years (Mark Clayton, 1,389 yards in 1984). Hill's 119 receptions were also a Dolphins record and those two totals ranked second in the NFL in 2022. Hill earned his seventh consecutive Pro Bowl selection.

Another player who thrived in McDaniel's offense was Waddle. In his second NFL season, Waddle caught 75 passes for 1,356 yards and eight touchdowns, leading the league in yards per reception (18.1). His 1,356 receiving yards were third in single-season team history behind Hill and Clayton. Waddle nearly doubled his yards after catch under McDaniel, averaging 6.7 YAC per reception in 2022 compared to 3.5 in 2021.

Hill and Waddle combined for 3,066 receiving yards, which was the third-most by a pair of teammates in a season in NFL history and more than two entire teams had in 2022.

Defensively, Miami ranked fourth in run defense, limiting opponents to 103.0 rushing yards per game. Defensive tackle Christian Wilkins played a big role in that as he totaled a career-high 98 tackles. His 98 stops were the most by an NFL defensive lineman in a season since 1994. Linebacker Elandon Roberts (104) and Sieler (70) also set career highs in tackles.

Prior to Miami, McDaniel spent five seasons (2017-21) with the San Francisco 49ers where he was the team's run game specialist in 2017 before being promoted to run game coordinator in 2018 and again to offensive coordinator in 2021.

In McDaniel's lone season as offensive coordinator, the 49ers finished seventh in the NFL in total offense (375.7 yards per game) and 13th in scoring offense (25.1 points per game) while advancing to the NFC Championship game. San Francisco's offense was balanced, ranking seventh in rushing (127.4) and 12th in passing (248.3). Wide receiver Deebo Samuel recorded 1,405 receiving yards, the most by a 49er since wide receiver Terrell Owens in 2001, and fifth-most in the NFL that season. The 49ers offense had four players earn Pro Bowl selections – Samuel, fullback Kyle Juszczyk, tight end George Kittle and tackle Trent Williams. Williams also earned All-Pro honors.

McDaniel served as San Francisco's run game coordinator from 2018-20. During that time, the 49ers were fifth in the NFL in rushing, averaging 127.0 yards per game, despite having a different leading rusher in all three seasons.

In 2020, San Francisco had several injuries at the running back position and still finished in the top half of the league with 118.1 rushing yards per game. Juszczyk and Williams earned Pro Bowl selections and Williams was also named All-Pro.

McDaniel helped the 49ers have one of the league's most effective rushing attacks in 2019 as San Francisco went 13-3, winning the NFC and advancing to Super Bowl LIV. The 49ers had the NFL's second-ranked rushing offense, averaging 144.1 yards per game. Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl at the end of the season.

In 2018, the 49ers had four different backs rush for at least 200 yards. Matt Breida's 5.32 yards per carry ranked fourth among all NFL players that season. The 49ers finished 13th in the league in rushing (118.9). Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl at the end of the season.

As run game specialist in 2017, McDaniel helped the 49ers rush for 1,662 yards and 15 rushing touchdowns in a season where they were forced to use three different starting quarterbacks due to injury. Juszczyk and tackle Joe Staley earned Pro Bowl selections.

Prior to San Francisco, McDaniel spent two seasons (2015-16) as an offensive assistant with the Atlanta Falcons. During his tenure, the Falcons had the second-best total offense (394.9) and third-best scoring offense (27.5) in the NFL. Atlanta's passing attack ranked second (284.5).

In 2016, Atlanta led the NFL in scoring, averaging 33.8 points per game, en route to finishing 11-5 and winning the NFC to advance to Super Bowl LI. The Falcons had the second-best total offense (415.8), third-best passing offense (295.3) and fifth-best rushing offense (120.5). Quarterback Matt Ryan passed for a franchise-record 4,944 yards, which was second in the NFL that season. Wide receiver Julio Jones was second in the league with 1,409 receiving yards. Four different Falcons earned Pro Bowl selections – Ryan, Jones, running back Devonta Freeman and center Alex Mack. Ryan, Jones and Mack also earned All-Pro honors.

The 2015 Falcons offense ranked sixth in passing (273.7) and seventh in total offense (374.1). Jones led the NFL with 1,871 receiving yards, a Falcons franchise record. Freeman, Jones and fullback Patrick DiMarco all earned Pro Bowl selections and All-Pro honors.

McDaniel spent the 2014 season as wide receivers coach for the Cleveland Browns. In his lone season there, wide receiver Andrew Hawkins had a career-high 824 yards. His receivers unit helped quarterback Brian Hoyer post the only 3,000-yard passing season of his career.

McDaniel's first job as an NFL position coach came in 2013 with Washington when he was promoted to wide receivers coach. Wide receiver Pierre Garçon had the best season of his 11-year NFL career, leading the NFL with 113 receptions.

McDaniel spent the 2011-12 seasons with Washington as an offensive assistant. On those staffs, McDaniel worked with current NFL head coaches Matt LaFleur (Green Bay), Sean McVay (L.A. Rams) and Kyle Shanahan (San Francisco).

In 2012, Washington led the league in rushing (169.3) and finished 10-6, winning the NFC East. The team was fourth in scoring offense (27.3) and fifth in total offense (383.2). Running back Alfred Morris rushed for 1,613 yards as a rookie selected in the sixth round. It was the third-highest rushing total by a rookie in NFL history and he earned second-team All-Pro honors.

From 2009-10, McDaniel served as running backs coach for the Sacramento Mountain Lions of the United Football League, where he worked for former NFL head coach, Dennis Green.

McDaniel was an offensive assistant for the Houston Texans from 2006-08 where he worked under three different offensive coordinators in three seasons – Troy Calhoun (2006), Mike Sherman (2007) and Kyle Shanahan (2008).

His first NFL coaching position came as a coaching intern with the Denver Broncos in 2005.

A native of Greeley, Colorado, McDaniel played wide receiver at Yale, where he graduated with a degree in history. He and his wife, Katie, have one daughter, Ayla.
